Record Examiners Are on the Trail of Virginia Tax Dodgers

Richmond, Sept. 25-Receiving direct and positive instructions from the state tax board, the examiners of records are preparing to bring to book all stock brokers, real estate agents and individuals who reppresent taxpayers or themselves in dealing with the matterSe-urdays dealing with the state and cities and counties in the matter of making payments for taxes. Indicating the thoroughness of the investigations, letters are being sent to every broker and agent in this circuit to report to Examiner Sands at once the names of those they represent, to make lists of all properties of the intangible class they have under their control and to declare for what years such taxes have been omitted.

Examiners in every circuit in the state have received a list of the owners of stocks in all foreign concerns, with the names of the concerns and the amount of the shares held, together with their market value. In addition, the examiners have collected data that will serve to refresh the
